Festive Makeover

With Christmas just around the corner, and rellies and friends on their way over, it is time to give your garden a zhush. As well as weeding, mowing, mulching and giving your garden a general tidy up, why not add some instant potted colour to bring cheer to entertaining areas. Add some extra 'bling' by adorning them with tinsel, baubles, bows, or even fairy lights.

OLD FAVOURITES for the festive season

SOPHIE'S TIP

Christmas Cheer

Nothing says Christmas more than poinsettias, for yourself or to give as gifts. They are great value and although I treat them as an annual, I still enjoying them till winter - much better value than a bunch of flowers. The traditional colour is red however they also come in shades of pink and cream, and they all look brilliant when sitting in an attractive pot or bowl.

Frangipani

We have a choice of colours in these lovely plants which will soon be flowering, if not already. 200mm pot

$31.98 EACH

Hydrangeas

Always a Christmas favourite in a choice of colours and pot sizes now.

from $29.98 EACH

Zantedeschia

You probably know them as Calla Lilies. They love full sun and should produce between 3 and 7 flowers in their first year. Range of colours. 150mm pot

$27.98 EACH

Pitcher Plants

Two sizes are available this season in a variety of colours. Their real name is sarracenia and they are carnivorous.

from $29.98 EACH

Lemonicious

An excellent performer in pots which will surprise you at just how many lemons it will produce. 180mm pot

Only $39.98 EACH

SA's Best Salvia

Our state's most popular salvia is back and in flower for summer. Plant out a patch of them or several into a large pot for a beautiful display. 120mm pot.
